ABOUT US

Dura Wake Produces quality wake surf boards.

Dura Wake is a surf company based out of Lake Tahoe California that is creating boards that are lightweight yet still durable. Our company was created in 2020 and has been building its fan base ever since. Our target audience is anyone who is tired of buying expensive boards that are fragile and break easy. Our brand offers a life time warranty which helps to build trust in our product. We want to be known as a company you can depend on with high quality goods.

OUR TARGET AUDIENCE

Dura Wake creates surf boards for anyone in the wake surfing community.

We build boards for wake surfers around the world who are looking for durable boards for an affordable price. We are excited to continue to build out brand while seeing where this company takes us.
